Community Service Project:
Teaching Importance of Internet Safety at Weston Elementary

Communicating to Parents

An email was sent to parents from teachers communicating to them that the educational session would occur in their student's classroom.

Sharing the Dangers of the Internet

The qualified professional and I prefaced the educational lesson with exposing the dangers posed by the Internet, and how these dangers may affect kids.

Educational Session with Students

Students were presented by Kate and guest professional with methods and actions that can keep them safe and protected while on the Internet.

Open Time for Questions from Students

After the presentation, the classroom was open to questions from the students to the presenters. This encouraged the students to address their own personal concerns.
